

Westlake Reed Leskosky

About Westlake Reed Leskosky

Westlake Reed Leskosky provides comprehensive fully-integrated design and management services including Architecture, Engineering, Interior Architecture and Design, Master Planning, Programming, and Feasibility Studies. We specialize in innovative designs for Performing and Other Cultural Arts, Workplace Environments, Healthcare, Research and Technology, and Historic Preservation and Adaptive Reuse. Westlake Reed Leskosky is a Limited Liability Corporation consisting of four members and three other principals. The firm was founded in Cleveland, Ohio in 1905 by Abram Garfield, the son of President James Garfield, and has been in continuous practice since then. With a professional staff of 140, the firm maintains an average volume of $750,000,000 in projects in design and construction. Westlake Reed Leskosky has offices in Cleveland, Ohio; Washington, D C; and Phoenix, Arizona. We have been honored with more than 250 significant design awards in the last twenty-five years, including a state level AIA Gold Medal Firm Award, a National Endowment for the Arts Federal Design Achievement Award, several honors from the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and a GSA Design Award.